

Quote Integration Workshop Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Informative Writing: Drafting with Evidence

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned in the Quote Integration Workshop.

1. What is one way to introduce a quote in your writing?

- A. Using a question
- B. Using a signal phrase
- C. Using a summary

2. Why is it important to explain quotes in your writing?

3. According to Proverbs 15:23, 'A man has joy in an apt answer. How good is a ___ word!'

4. Quotes should only be used at the beginning of a paragraph.

- True False

5. What makes a quote strong evidence?

- A. It is long and detailed
- B. It supports the main idea
- C. It is from a famous person

6. List three ways to introduce a quote.

7. Always explain what the quote ___ means in your writing.

8. Using quotes can make your writing more persuasive and credible.

- True False

9. Which signal phrase could you use to introduce a quote?

- A. According to the book
- B. As stated in the article
- C. In the words of the teacher

10. How can a quote help explain an idea?

Answer Key

1. Using a signal phrase 2. It helps the reader understand the connection between the quote and the main idea. 3. timely 4. False 5. It supports the main idea 6. 1. Using a signal phrase. 2. Introducing the author. 3. Providing context about the quote. 7. quote 8. True 9. In the words of the teacher 10. A quote can clarify a point by providing specific evidence or an example that relates to the main idea.