

Peer Review Roundtable

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Informative Writing and Feedback

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about peer review and informative writing.

1. What is the main purpose of peer review?

- A. To criticize others
- B. To provide constructive feedback
- C. To write essays

2. What are two important things to remember when giving feedback during peer review?

---

---

---

3. Feedback should only point out the mistakes in a classmate's writing.

- True       False

4. According to Proverbs 15:31, the ear that listens to life-giving ____ will be at home among the wise.

5. Which of the following makes feedback feel supportive?

- A. Being rude
- B. Offering solutions
- C. Ignoring the writer's feelings

6. How can you apply the suggestions received during peer review to your writing?

---

---

---

---

7. Active listening is an important part of giving and receiving feedback.

- True       False

8. Peer review helps improve writing through ____ learning.

9. What is an effective way to start your feedback?

- A. I think you should change everything.
- B. I liked how you wrote about...
- C. This is wrong.

10. What was the most helpful part of today's peer review for you?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. To provide constructive feedback 2. Focus on specific suggestions and use "I" statements. 3. False 4. reproof 5. Offering solutions 6. I can revise my essay based on the feedback and implement the positive suggestions given. 7. True 8. collaborative 9. I liked how you wrote about... 10. The most helpful part was receiving specific suggestions that I can use to improve my essay.