

Choosing Your Battle: Finding Meaningful Opinion Topics

BibleMouse.com

5th Grade Language Arts Review

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about opinion writing.

1. What makes a good opinion topic?

- A. It reflects personal values
- B. It's popular among friends
- C. It has no impact on others

2. Why is it important to consider your audience when writing an opinion piece?

3. Writing can help make a positive difference in the community.

- True False

4. A soft answer turns away ____, but harsh words stir up anger. (Proverbs 15:1)

5. Which of the following is a way to write respectfully about our opinions?

- A. Using harsh words
- B. Listening to others
- C. Ignoring different viewpoints

6. What are some topics that align with showing God's love? List two examples.

7. The memory verse James 1:19 encourages people to speak quickly and get angry fast.

- True False

8. When brainstorming opinion topics, it's important to write with ____ and thoughtfulness.

9. What is one objective of the lesson on opinion writing?

- A. To memorize the Bible
- B. To practice brainstorming with purpose
- C. To write for a test

10. How can Christians use writing to share truth and encourage others? Provide two ways.

Answer Key

1. It reflects personal values 2. Considering the audience helps the writer connect better and make the message more effective. It ensures that the writing is relevant to those reading it. 3. True 4. wrath 5. Listening to others 6. One topic could be helping the homeless in our community. Another topic could be promoting kindness in schools. 7. False 8. purpose 9. To practice brainstorming with purpose 10. Christians can share their personal experiences in their writing to inspire others. They can also write about important issues that reflect their faith and values to educate and motivate others.

