

Research for Arguments Review

BibleMouse.com

---

Understanding Credible Sources and Evidence

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about research and opinion writing.

1. What is a credible source for research?

- A. An opinion blog
- B. Library books
- C. Social media posts

2. Facts and opinions are the same thing.

True       False

3. Why is it important to have evidence when sharing an opinion?

---

---

---

4. The heart of the discerning acquires ____.

5. How can we tell if a source is trustworthy?

---

---

---

6. Which of the following is NOT a reliable research source?

- A. Educational websites
- B. Expert interviews
- C. Unverified internet rumors

7. Gathering multiple perspectives is important when conducting research.

True       False

8. Research helps us understand topics better by providing ____.

9. What interesting evidence did you discover during your research?

---

---

---

10. What does Proverbs 15:14 teach us about knowledge?

- A. It is not important to seek knowledge.
- B. Discerning people should seek knowledge.
- C. Knowledge comes from opinions.

---

Answer Key

1. Library books 2. False 3. Having evidence makes our opinions stronger and helps others understand our point of view better. 4. knowledge 5. We can check if the author is an expert, look for citations, and see if the information is up-to-date and balanced. 6. Unverified internet rumors 7. True 8. evidence 9. I discovered statistics that showed how many people agree with my opinion, which made my argument stronger. 10. Discerning people should seek knowledge.