

Argument Strength Assessment Review

BibleMouse.com

Evaluating Your Opinion Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about assessing the strength of arguments in opinion writing.

1. What did you discover about your argument after examining it with the strength meter?

2. What is more important in an argument, quality of evidence or quantity of evidence?

- A. Quality of evidence
- B. Quantity of evidence
- C. Both are equally important

3. It is important to challenge our own ideas to strengthen our arguments.

True False

4. Why is strong evidence important for an opinion essay?

5. The heart of one who has understanding seeks ____.

6. What might you do to strengthen your essay?

- A. Add more personal opinions
- B. Include more facts and examples
- C. Use more complex language

7. Weak reasoning can make an argument more persuasive.

True False

8. What makes evidence compelling in an argument?

9. Logical reasoning creates ____ arguments.

10. What is a key technique for evaluating arguments in your writing?

- A. Using a strength meter
- B. Writing more
- C. Ignoring feedback

Answer Key

1. I found that my argument was weak because it lacked supporting evidence. 2. Quality of evidence 3. True 4. Strong evidence helps convince the reader and supports the writer's claims. 5. knowledge 6. Include more facts and examples 7. False 8. Compelling evidence is clear, relevant, and directly supports the main point of the argument. 9. strong 10. Using a strength meter

