

Peer Review: Persuasion Check

BibleMouse.com

---

Understanding the Importance of Constructive Feedback

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about peer review and persuasive writing.

1. What is the purpose of peer review in writing?

- A. To correct grammar only
- B. To give feedback for improvement
- C. To judge the writer's character

2. Why is it important to provide constructive feedback?

---

---

---

3. Using 'I' statements in feedback can help make suggestions more personal and respectful.

- True       False

4. Proverbs 15:31 teaches us that listening to ____ can make us wise.

5. Which of the following is a way to balance critique with positive observations?

- A. Only point out mistakes
- B. Start with something positive
- C. Ignore the good parts

6. How can you improve your essay based on your peer's feedback?

---

---

---

7. Peer review is a way to share work without any feedback.

- True       False

8. To speak the truth in love means to share honest feedback while being ____ and respectful.

9. What is a key component of effective peer feedback?

- A. Focusing on feelings
- B. Giving vague comments
- C. Offering specific suggestions

10. What did you find most helpful about the feedback you received from your peer?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. To give feedback for improvement 2. Constructive feedback helps others improve their work and encourages them to keep trying. 3. True 4. reproof 5. Start with something positive 6. I can add more examples to support my opinion and clarify my main points based on the suggestions given. 7. False 8. kind 9. Offering specific suggestions 10. Their suggestions on how to make my argument stronger helped me see where I needed to elaborate more.