

Research Project Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Research Questions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about developing strong research questions.

1. What are three characteristics of a good research question?

---

---

---

2. What should you do to make your research questions more effective?

- A. Make them vague
- B. Avoid interesting topics
- C. Ensure they are specific

3. Research questions should be broad and general.

True  False

4. According to Proverbs 2:2-5, we should seek wisdom like searching for ____ treasures.

5. How can your research help others? Give an example.

---

---

---

6. Which type of question should you avoid when developing research questions?

- A. Open-ended questions
- B. Yes/No questions
- C. Informative questions

7. Choosing a topic that reflects God's creativity can enhance your research project.

True  False

8. To develop strong research questions, you should consider topics that reflect God's ____ or love.

9. Why is it important to have a focused inquiry in research?

---

---

10. What is one way to ensure your research question is interesting?

- A. Pick a topic you don't care about
- B. Choose a topic that helps others
- C. Make it as complicated as possible

---

Answer Key

1. A good research question should be clear, focused, and interesting. 2. Ensure they are specific 3. False 4. hidden 5. My research can help others by providing useful information about a topic they are interested in, like how to care for pets. 6. Yes/No questions 7. True 8. creativity 9. Having a focused inquiry helps us gather specific information and makes our research more effective and manageable. 10. Choose a topic that helps others

---

