

Bibliography Building Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding How to Create Bibliographies

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about bibliographies and citation formats.

1. What is a bibliography and why is it important in research?

---

---

---

2. What type of information do you need to include for a book citation?

- A. Author, title, publisher
- B. Website URL
- C. Article title only

3. It is not necessary to cite sources if you are using your own ideas.

True       False

4. Citing sources helps to avoid ____ in research.

5. Which of the following is NOT a type of source?

- A. Books
- B. Websites
- C. Summaries

6. Why do researchers need to use different citation formats for different sources?

---

---

---

7. Proverbs 18:15 emphasizes the importance of gaining knowledge.

True       False

8. The heart of the discerning gets ____ according to Proverbs 18:15.

9. What is one key piece of information needed for a website citation?

- A. Publisher name
- B. Website URL
- C. Author's age

10. How can creating a bibliography help others who read your research?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. A bibliography is a list of sources used in research. It is important because it gives credit to the authors and helps others find the sources. 2. 0 3. False 4. plagiarism 5. 2 6. Different sources have different types of information and formats. Using the right format helps readers understand the source better. 7. True 8. knowledge 9. 1 10. It provides them with the sources I used, so they can look them up and verify the information.