

Research Drafting Day One Review

BibleMouse.com

---

Comprehension Questions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about drafting your research project.

1. What is the first step in creating a structured draft for a research project?

- A. Writing the conclusion
- B. Creating an outline
- C. Gathering sources

2. Proverbs 18:15 teaches us that the heart of the discerning gets ____ and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.

3. Why is it important to give credit to our sources when drafting a research project?

---

---

---

4. Using citation markers helps track sources in a research project.

- True       False

5. What should you organize your sources by when drafting?

- A. Main ideas
- B. Alphabetical order
- C. Date of publication

6. A clear draft should include an introduction, main points, and a ____.

7. What was the most challenging part of drafting your research project today?

---

---

---

8. It is unnecessary to have a logical flow in the information presented in a research draft.

- True       False

9. What should you do before you start writing your draft?

- A. Create an outline
- B. Start typing
- C. Skip to the conclusion

10. How can you improve your draft tomorrow?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. 1 2. knowledge 3. It is important to give credit to our sources to avoid plagiarism and to show respect for the work of others. This also helps others verify the information we present. 4. True 5.
1 6. conclusion 7. The most challenging part was organizing my notes into a clear structure. I found it difficult to decide what to include in the introduction and how to connect my main points. 8.
False 9. 0 10. I can improve my draft tomorrow by reviewing my notes again and making sure I have all the necessary information organized. I will also check my citations to ensure they are correct.