

Research Drafting Day Two: Citing Sources Effectively

BibleMouse.com

Review and Comprehension Questions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about citing sources in your research project.

1. What are the different types of sources mentioned in the lesson?

- A. Books, websites, articles
- B. Pictures, videos, songs
- C. Reports, speeches, interviews

2. Why is it important to give credit to original authors in your research?

3. Paraphrasing means using someone else's ideas without changing the words.

- True False

4. The verse from Colossians encourages us to do everything in the name of the ____.

5. What does the lesson say about plagiarism?

- A. It's a way to summarize information.
- B. It's stealing someone else's ideas without giving credit.
- C. It's a method for direct quoting.

6. What makes a good citation? List two key points discussed in the lesson.

7. Using direct quotes is the only way to include source information in your writing.

- True False

8. The scripture from Proverbs teaches us to be wise and to ____ our words.

9. Which citation style did the lesson suggest might be used for research projects?

- A. APA
- B. MLA
- C. Both A and B

10. How can proper citations show respect to other writers? Explain in your own words.

Answer Key

1. Books, websites, articles 2. Giving credit shows respect for the original author's work and helps avoid plagiarism. 3. False 4. Lord Jesus 5. It's stealing someone else's ideas without giving credit. 6. A good citation includes accurate information about the source and follows a specific format. It should clearly show where the information came from. 7. False 8. restrain 9. Both A and B 10. Proper citations show that you value the effort and ideas of other writers. It gives them credit for their work and helps maintain honesty in research.