

Presentation Preparation Review

BibleMouse.com

Sharing Our Research Discoveries

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about effective presentations.

1. What should you do to engage your audience during a presentation?

- A. Read directly from notes
- B. Make eye contact
- C. Speak very fast

2. Explain why clear communication is important when sharing your research findings.

---

---

---

3. Proverbs 15:2 teaches us that the tongue of the wise commends ____.

4. Using visual aids can help make a presentation more engaging.

- True       False

5. What is one way to structure an effective presentation?

- A. List random facts
- B. Organize information logically
- C. Speak only about things you find interesting

6. How can your research project help others understand something new? Give an example.

---

---

---

---

7. 1 Corinthians 10:31 reminds us to do everything to the ____ of God.

8. It's best to speak in a monotone voice during a presentation.

- True       False

9. What is one key element of body language during a presentation?

- A. Crossing your arms
- B. Using hand gestures
- C. Looking at the ground

10. What did you learn about presenting today that you will apply in your own presentation?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Make eye contact 2. Clear communication helps the audience understand the key points of my research and keeps them interested. 3. knowledge 4. True 5. Organize information logically 6. My project on recycling can teach others how to reduce waste and protect the environment. 7. glory 8. False 9. Using hand gestures 10. I learned the importance of practicing my speech to feel more confident and speak clearly.