

Self-Editing Boot Camp Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Importance of Self-Editing in Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned in this lesson about self-editing.

1. What is the first pass in the self-editing strategy?
 - A. Check spelling and grammar
 - B. Review organization and flow
 - C. Check content and ideas
2. Proverbs 15:28 teaches us that the heart of the righteous weighs answers ____ before answering.
3. Why is it important to check the organization and flow of your writing during the self-editing process?

4. The second pass of self-editing focuses on spelling and punctuation.
 True False
5. What does careful editing show about the writer's attitude towards the reader?
 - A. Disrespect
 - B. Care and consideration
 - C. Indifference
6. The three-pass self-editing strategy includes checking content, organization, and ____ .
7. How can careful editing help communicate more effectively?

8. Good writing is clear and understandable when it is carefully edited.
 True False
9. What is one method students used to practice self-editing in the activity?
 - A. Reading aloud
 - B. Color-coded editing system
 - C. Peer review
10. The heart of the wicked pours out ____ things according to Proverbs 15:28.

Answer Key

1. Check content and ideas 2. carefully 3. Checking organization helps the reader understand the ideas better. It ensures that the writing flows logically from one point to the next. 4. False 5. Care and consideration 6. spelling 7. Careful editing helps make the writing clearer and easier to understand, which allows the reader to grasp the message without confusion. 8. True 9. Color-coded editing system 10. evil