

Plot Planning Workshop Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Story Elements

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned in the Plot Planning Workshop.

- What are the six key plot elements of storytelling?
  - Exposition, Conflict, Rising Action, Climax, Falling Action, Resolution
  - Characters, Setting, Conflict, Climax, Resolution, Theme
  - Introduction, Body, Conclusion, Conflict, Climax, Resolution
- The _____ is where the main problem or conflict of the story occurs.
- Why is conflict important in a story?
_____
_____
- The resolution of a story is where the conflict is introduced.
 True     False
- What does the exposition of a story typically include?
  - The main character's journey
  - The setting and characters
  - The resolution of the story
- According to Proverbs 16:9, a man's heart plans his way, but _____ directs his steps.
- How can your story illustrate God's love?
_____
_____
_____
- Rising action occurs after the climax in a story.
 True     False
- What is the purpose of the falling action in a story?
  - To build up the tension
  - To resolve the conflict
  - To introduce new characters
- Every story needs a clear _____ to guide the reader through the narrative.

---

Answer Key

1. Exposition, Conflict, Rising Action, Climax, Falling Action, Resolution    2. climax    3. Conflict keeps the reader engaged and drives the plot forward by creating tension.    4. False    5. The setting and characters    6. Yahweh    7. By showing characters who forgive and help each other, reflecting God's love in their actions.    8. False    9. To resolve the conflict    10. structure