

Character Development Studio Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Characters in Stories

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about character development in creative writing.

1. What makes your character unique? Describe three traits that set them apart.

2. What is one reason why characters need clear goals?

- A. To make the story longer
- B. To drive the story forward
- C. To confuse the reader

3. Characters grow and change throughout the story.

True False

4. According to 1 Samuel 16:7, Yahweh looks at the ____ of a person, not their outward appearance.

5. How might your character change by the end of the story? Give an example of their growth.

6. What do inner conflicts in characters help to create?

- A. Boring stories
- B. Realistic characters
- C. More characters

7. Empathy is important for understanding a character's perspective.

True False

8. Proverbs 4:23 teaches us to keep our heart with all ____ because it affects our life choices.

9. What is one way characters can overcome challenges?

- A. By giving up
- B. By using their strengths and learning from their weaknesses
- C. By lying to others

10. In your opinion, what makes a character heroic? Explain your answer.

Answer Key

1. My character is brave, kind, and creative. 2. To drive the story forward 3. True 4. heart 5. My character might start off scared but learns to be courageous by facing their fears, which helps them save their friends. 6. Realistic characters 7. True 8. diligence 9. By using their strengths and learning from their weaknesses 10. A heroic character is someone who helps others, shows bravery, and stands up for what is right, even when it is difficult.