

Character and Dialogue Revision

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Dialogue in Creative Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about character and dialogue in creative writing.

1. What did you learn about creating good dialogue?

2. What is one technique for using dialogue to reveal character traits?

- A. Using long sentences
- B. Making characters talk the same way
- C. Giving each character a unique speaking style

3. Dialogue can help a story move forward.

- True False

4. Proverbs 15:1 teaches us that a ____ answer turns away wrath.

5. How can dialogue help readers understand characters?

6. Which of the following is NOT a characteristic of realistic dialogue?

- A. Sounds natural
- B. Reflects emotions
- C. Is always long and detailed

7. Each character in a story should have a similar speaking style.

- True False

8. Good dialogue reveals a character's ____, emotions, and motivations.

9. What can harsh words in dialogue cause, according to Proverbs 15:1?

- A. Peace
- B. Anger
- C. Joy

10. What is one way you can revise dialogue to improve story quality?

Answer Key

1. I learned that good dialogue should sound natural and reflect each character's personality. 2. Giving each character a unique speaking style 3. True 4. soft 5. Dialogue shows how characters feel and think through their words, making them more relatable. 6. Is always long and detailed 7. False 8. personality 9. Anger 10. I can change the words characters use to match their personalities better or make their conversations more engaging.