

5th Grade Language Arts Review

BibleMouse.com

Writing Portfolio Development

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about assembling your writing portfolio.

1. What is the purpose of creating a reflective introduction for your portfolio?

- A. To showcase writing growth
- B. To confuse the reader
- C. To add more pages

2. Colossians 3:23 reminds us to work ____, as for the Lord, and not for men.

3. What skills did you learn about organizing your writing portfolio? Include at least two techniques.

4. A well-organized portfolio can help showcase a student's skills and growth.

- True False

5. Which of the following is NOT a talking point in the lesson?

- A. Showcase variety in writing genres
- B. Highlight personal growth
- C. Ignore presentation skills

6. Proverbs 22:29 emphasizes the value of being skilled in your work and suggests you will stand before ____

7. How can your portfolio tell a story about your writing journey? Provide an example.

8. The lesson encourages students to present their portfolios in a messy manner.

- True False

9. What is one key aspect of presentation skills mentioned in the lesson?

- A. Using poor grammar
- B. Creating a professional appearance
- C. Reading without eye contact

10. The activity involves assembling a personalized collection of your best ____

Answer Key

1. To showcase writing growth 2. heartily 3. I learned to create a table of contents and arrange my writing pieces in a strategic order. 4. True 5. Ignore presentation skills 6. kings 7. My portfolio can show my progress from simple stories to more complex essays, illustrating how I've grown as a writer. 8. False 9. Creating a professional appearance 10. work