

Writing Portfolio Presentation Review

BibleMouse.com

Reflecting on Our Writing Growth

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about portfolio presentation and writing growth.

1. What is one key technique for effective portfolio presentation?

- A. Reading from your notes
- B. Making eye contact
- C. Using a loud voice

2. What did you learn about presenting today that you think will help you in the future? Explain in 3-4 sentences.

3. Sharing our writing can help us grow as writers.

- True False

4. The memory verse for this lesson is Proverbs 16:3: 'Commit your work to ____, and your plans will be established.'

5. Which of the following is a benefit of sharing your writing?

- A. It allows you to hide your mistakes
- B. It helps you receive feedback
- C. It makes you less confident

6. How can your writing glorify God? Provide specific examples.

7. Effective portfolio presentations do not require practice.

- True False

8. To improve my writing, I need to focus on ____ and practice regularly.

9. What was one challenge mentioned in the lesson that writers might face?

- A. Finding the right audience
- B. Overcoming writer's block
- C. Deciding on a title

10. What writing skills do you want to improve and why? Write 3-4 sentences.

Answer Key

1. Making eye contact 2. I learned that making eye contact is important because it helps connect with the audience. I also found out that speaking clearly makes my ideas easier to understand. Practicing beforehand can help reduce nervousness. Overall, I feel more confident about sharing my work now. 3. True 4. Yahweh 5. It helps you receive feedback 6. My writing can glorify God by sharing my thoughts and experiences in a way that inspires others. For example, I can write stories about kindness and faith. When I express my gratitude for God's blessings in my writing, it honors Him. 7. False 8. specific skills 9. Overcoming writer's block 10. I want to improve my descriptive writing skills because I want my readers to visualize my stories better. By using more vivid language and details, I can make my writing more engaging. Additionally, I would like to work on my grammar to ensure my ideas are clearly communicated. Improving these skills will help me express myself more effectively.