

Online Communication Etiquette Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Digital Interactions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you've learned about online communication etiquette.

1. What should you avoid in your online communication?

- A. Kind words
- B. Corrupt speech
- C. Respectful comments

2. Why is it important to think before you post or send anything online?

3. All comments made online should be constructive and kind.

- True False

4. Ephesians 4:29 teaches us to let no ___ speech proceed out of our mouth.

5. How can we use technology to show God's love in our communications?

6. Which of the following is an example of respectful digital interaction?

- A. Ignoring others' feelings
- B. Using harsh words
- C. Offering constructive feedback

7. It's okay to use rude language in emails if you are frustrated.

- True False

8. In collaborative documents, we should practice teamwork and ___ towards others.

9. What do you think Jesus would want our online communication to look like?

10. What is a key principle of online communication etiquette?

- A. To be quick to argue
- B. To be clear and respectful
- C. To ignore others' opinions

Answer Key

1. corrupt speech 2. Because our words can affect others' feelings and we want to communicate in a way that is kind and respectful. 3. True 4. corrupt 5. We can use technology to send encouraging messages, be respectful in our interactions, and build others up with our words. 6. Offering constructive feedback 7. False 8. consideration 9. Jesus would want it to be loving, respectful, and encouraging, helping others feel valued and understood. 10. To be clear and respectful