

Language Arts Growth Reflection

BibleMouse.com

Celebrating Achievements and Looking Forward

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you have learned in the lesson about reflecting on your language arts journey.

1. What did you learn about yourself today in your writing skills?

---

---

---

2. What is one thing you should focus on for growth in writing next year?

- A. Grammar
- B. Reading more books
- C. Using more vocabulary

3. Philippians 3:14 teaches us to press on toward the goal for the prize of the ___ calling of God in Christ Jesus.

4. Reflecting on past growth is not important for future improvement.

- True       False

5. How can your writing bring glory to God?

---

---

---

6. What is a key theme in this lesson about language arts growth?

- A. Looking backward only
- B. Celebrating achievements
- C. Avoiding challenges

7. Recognizing personal growth areas helps us to ___ in our skills and knowledge.

8. Setting future goals is an important part of the learning process.

- True       False

9. What writing skill are you most proud of this year?

---

---

---

10. Which of the following is NOT a skill you reflected on in your language arts journey?

- A. Listening
- B. Math
- C. Speaking

---

Answer Key

1. I learned that I have improved in my writing structure and can express my ideas more clearly. 2. Grammar 3. high 4. False 5. By sharing my thoughts and experiences in a way that honors Him and helps others understand His love. 6. Celebrating achievements 7. advance 8. True 9. I am most proud of my ability to write persuasive essays and convince readers of my ideas. 10. Math

