

Goal Setting for Future Writers

BibleMouse.com

5th Grade Language Arts Review

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about goal setting for writing and reading.

1. What is one writing goal you are most excited about for this summer? Explain why it is important to you.

2. According to Proverbs 16:3, what should you do with your works?

- A. Hide them
- B. Commit them to Yahweh
- C. Share them with friends

3. Setting goals for writing can help you grow and improve.

True False

4. Writing is a way to share God's ____ and truth.

5. How can your writing bring glory to God? Give an example.

6. What is one benefit of reading for improving your writing?

- A. It takes time away from writing
- B. It helps you learn new words and styles
- C. It doesn't help at all

7. Consistent practice in writing is not necessary for improvement.

True False

8. Creating a summer reading and writing plan helps to set ____ goals for personal growth.

9. What types of writing do you enjoy most? Explain why they are your favorite.

10. How can writing be a form of ministry?

- A. By writing only for yourself
- B. By sharing messages that inspire others
- C. By avoiding difficult topics

Answer Key

1. I want to write a short story because I enjoy creating characters. It helps me express my ideas and feelings. 2. Commit them to Yahweh 3. True 4. love 5. My writing can bring glory to God by sharing positive messages that encourage others. For example, I could write a poem about kindness. 6. It helps you learn new words and styles 7. False 8. intentional 9. I enjoy writing poetry because I like to express my feelings in creative ways. I also like stories because I can create new worlds. 10. By sharing messages that inspire others