

Welcome to the World of Stories Review

BibleMouse.com

Exploring Literature and Its Impact

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on today's lesson about the power of stories and reading.

1. What is one purpose of reading literature?

- A. To memorize facts
- B. To learn about different cultures
- C. To avoid boredom

2. How can stories help us understand others? Provide an example.

---

---

---

3. Every Scripture is inspired by God and useful for teaching.

- True       False

4. Stories can teach us ____ lessons about life and morality.

5. What scripture emphasizes the importance of listening to instruction?

- A. Proverbs 3:5
- B. Proverbs 1:8
- C. 2 Timothy 3:16

6. What goal are you most excited about for your reading this year? Explain why.

---

---

---

7. Reading does not help develop imagination.

- True       False

8. God uses stories to communicate ____ and truth.

9. What can stories teach us about God?

- A. That He does not exist
- B. That He loves us
- C. That we should not listen to our parents

10. What makes a story memorable for you? Describe a story that you found unforgettable.

---

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. To learn about different cultures 2. Stories can help us see the world through someone else's eyes. For example, reading a story about a different culture can teach us about their traditions and struggles. 3. True 4. moral 5. Proverbs 1:8 6. I want to read more fantasy books because they help me use my imagination and escape to different worlds. 7. False 8. truth 9. That He loves us 10. A memorable story for me is 'The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe' because it teaches about bravery and sacrifice. The characters are relatable, and the magical world captivates my imagination.