

Lucy's Courageous Choice Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Lucy's Character in The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on your reading of Chapters 3-4 about Lucy's experiences.

1. How did Lucy feel when her siblings did not believe her about Narnia? Explain your answer in 3-4 sentences.

2. What character trait best describes Lucy when she shares her story about Narnia?

- A. Fearful
- B. Courageous
- C. Dishonest

3. Telling the truth is important to God, even if others do not believe you.

True False

4. Lucy showed great ____ when she stood up for her experience in Narnia.

5. Why is it important to tell the truth, as shown in Lucy's story? Give examples from the text.

6. What does Proverbs 12:22 teach us about honesty?

- A. Honesty is overrated
- B. Honesty pleases God
- C. Lying is okay sometimes

7. Lucy was discouraged by her siblings' disbelief and chose to stop talking about her experience.

True False

8. Lucy's commitment to ____, even when others doubted her, highlights the importance of integrity.

9. How can we show courage like Lucy in our own lives? Provide an example.

10. What was Lucy's primary challenge when sharing her experience?

- A. Finding Narnia
- B. Being believed by her siblings
- C. Keeping a secret
- D. Explaining her feelings

Answer Key

1. Lucy felt sad and frustrated because she wanted to share her amazing experience. It hurt her that her siblings didn't believe her. She felt lonely and wished they would understand her excitement. 2. Courageous 3. True 4. courage 5. It is important to tell the truth because it builds trust. In Lucy's case, her honesty about Narnia showed her integrity, even when others doubted her. This teaches us that being truthful is a reflection of our character. 6. Honesty pleases God 7. False 8. truth 9. We can show courage by standing up for what we believe in, even if others disagree. For example, if a friend is being bullied, it takes courage to speak up and help them. 10. Being believed by her siblings