

Edmund's Temptation Review

BibleMouse.com

Exploring Choices and Consequences

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about Edmund's temptation in 'The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe.'

1. What internal conflict does Edmund face in his encounter with the White Witch?

- A. Fear of rejection
- B. Desire for power
- C. Love for his siblings

2. How does Edmund's desire for Turkish Delight reflect his weaknesses?

---

---

---

3. James 1:14 teaches us that each person is tempted when he is drawn away by his own ____.

4. Edmund's choice to follow the White Witch shows his strong character and loyalty to his siblings.

- True       False

5. What does the lesson suggest about small compromises leading to bigger failures?

- A. They are harmless
- B. They can be a slippery slope
- C. They always have positive outcomes

6. What lesson can we learn from Edmund's choices regarding temptation?

---

---

---

7. 1 Corinthians 10:13 reminds us that God provides a way of ____ when we face temptation.

8. Recognizing personal vulnerabilities is not important when dealing with temptation.

- True       False

9. What motivates Edmund to betray his siblings?

- A. Jealousy and anger
- B. Fear of the White Witch
- C. Desire for acceptance and sweet treats

10. In what ways can we compare Edmund's temptation to biblical temptation narratives?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. 1 2. Edmund's desire for Turkish Delight shows his weakness for sweet and easy pleasures. It makes him willing to betray his siblings for something that seems appealing at the moment. 3. lusts 4. False 5. They can be a slippery slope 6. We learn that giving in to temptation can lead to bad choices. It's important to recognize our vulnerabilities and seek help before making decisions that could hurt ourselves or others. 7. escape 8. False 9. Desire for acceptance and sweet treats 10. Edmund's temptation is similar to biblical narratives like Eve's choice in the Garden of Eden. Both characters were lured by a desire that seemed good but led to negative consequences.