

Review of Writing to the Creator

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Poetry as Worship

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about poetry and psalms.

1. What is one of the main purposes of writing poetry according to the lesson?
 - A. To entertain others
 - B. To express praise and thanksgiving to God
 - C. To tell a story
2. Psalms are songs and poems of ____, thanksgiving, and prayer.
3. What emotions do you think David felt when writing psalms? Give examples of feelings he might have expressed.

4. Poetry can be a powerful way to communicate with God.

True False

5. Which poetic technique is commonly found in biblical poetry?

- A. Alliteration
- B. Parallelism
- C. Rhyme scheme

6. The memory verse for this week is from Psalm 95:1, which invites us to ____ to Yahweh.

7. How can poetry help us express our feelings about God? Explain in your own words.

8. Writing a psalm is meant to be a difficult task that should discourage us.

True False

9. What is one challenge students might face when writing their own psalm?

- A. Choosing the right words
- B. Finding time to write
- C. Reading other psalms

10. David used vivid ____ in his psalms to express his deep emotions.

Answer Key

1. To express praise and thanksgiving to God 2. praise 3. David likely felt joy, sorrow, and gratitude. For example, he expressed joy when praising God and sorrow when seeking forgiveness. 4. True 5. Parallelism 6. sing 7. Poetry can help us express our feelings by allowing us to put our thoughts into creative words. It helps us to describe our emotions in a way that connects us deeply with God. 8. False 9. Choosing the right words 10. imagery