

The Rhythm of Adventure

BibleMouse.com

---

Understanding Narrative Poetry and Epic Tales

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about rhythm in poetry.

1. What is rhythm compared to in poetry?

- A. A melody
- B. A heartbeat
- C. A rhyme

2. What did you learn about how rhythm creates emotion in poetry?

---

---

---

3. Rhythm in poetry can affect how a story feels to the reader.

- True       False

4. Sound can create mood and ____ in poetry.

5. Which Psalm encourages us to 'sing to him a new song'?

- A. Psalm 23:1
- B. Psalm 100:4
- C. Psalm 33:3

6. How can rhythm make a story more exciting?

---

---

---

7. All poems have the same rhythm and sound.

- True       False

8. Different rhythms can make a story feel ____ or slow.

9. What effect does rhythm have on the emotional expression of a poem?

- A. It makes it harder to understand
- B. It can enhance the feelings
- C. It has no effect

10. Can you think of a time when sound made something feel more exciting? Describe it.

---

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. A heartbeat 2. Rhythm helps express feelings by changing the pace of the poem. It can make you feel excited or calm depending on the beat. 3. True 4. excitement 5. Psalm 33:3 6. Rhythm can speed up the pace of a story, making it feel more thrilling and dynamic. It captures the reader's attention and enhances the action. 7. False 8. fast 9. It can enhance the feelings 10. When I watched a movie with action scenes, the music made me feel more excited and anxious. The fast beats matched the action on the screen.