

The Christmas Gift: Exploring Generosity

BibleMouse.com

Review of Bridge to Terabithia and the Importance of Giving

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about generosity and the symbolism of the puppy gift in Bridge to Terabithia.

1. What does the puppy gifted to Jess symbolize in the story?

- A. Friendship
- B. Conflict
- C. Fear

2. Why do you think Leslie's family decided to give Jess the puppy?

3. The lesson teaches that it is more blessed to receive than to give.

- True False

4. Acts 20:35 tells us that 'It is more blessed to ____ than to receive.'

5. How does receiving the puppy change Jess's relationship with Leslie's family?

- A. It makes him feel loved and included
- B. It creates conflict
- C. It makes him dislike them

6. In what ways can gifts demonstrate love and care according to our lesson?

7. Generosity only involves giving physical gifts.

- True False

8. The lesson emphasizes that true friendship involves thinking of ____ .

9. What is a key theme discussed in our lesson?

- A. The importance of receiving gifts
- B. Generosity in friendship
- C. The value of material possessions

10. How can you show generosity to others in your life? Give an example.

Answer Key

1. Friendship 2. They wanted to show their kindness and understanding of Jess's feelings. The puppy represents their support and friendship towards him. 3. False 4. give 5. It makes him feel loved and included 6. Gifts can show that we understand what someone needs or wants. They can also strengthen friendships by showing we think about others and care for them. 7. False 8. others 9. Generosity in friendship 10. I can show generosity by helping my friends when they are in need or giving them my time and attention. For example, I could help a friend with their homework or share my toys with them.