

Bridge to Terabithia - Chapter 10 Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Friendship and Dramatic Irony

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on Chapter 10 of Bridge to Terabithia.

1. What surprised you most in Chapter 10, and why was it significant for Jess?

2. What does Jess learn about friendship from his experience in Washington?

- A. Friendship is only about fun
- B. Friends are always there in tough times
- C. Friends can be replaced

3. Dramatic irony occurs when the reader knows something that the characters do not.

True False

4. Proverbs 17:17 teaches us that a friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for ____.

5. How does Miss Edmunds' invitation change Jess's day, and what does it reveal about their friendship?

6. What makes Jess's day feel 'perfect'?

- A. Going to school
- B. Spending time with Leslie
- C. The trip to Washington

7. Unexpected events can have a positive impact on our plans.

True False

8. The chapter highlights the theme of ____, showing how unexpected experiences shape relationships.

9. How might Jess's day have been different if he hadn't gone to Washington?

10. What is an example of dramatic irony in this chapter?

- A. Jess is excited about the trip
- B. Jess doesn't know what will happen during the day
- C. Leslie tells Jess a secret

Answer Key

1. I was surprised by Miss Edmunds' invitation because it showed Jess a new side of life. It was significant because it changed his perspective on his day. 2. 1 3. True 4. adversity 5. Miss Edmunds' invitation made Jess feel special and important. It revealed that their friendship was deeper than he realized, showing that she valued him. 6. 2 7. True 8. friendship 9. If Jess hadn't gone to Washington, he would have missed a chance to connect with Miss Edmunds and experience a fun day. It may have left him feeling ordinary instead of special. 10. 1