

Review of Man vs. Nature: God's Creation and Human Stewardship

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Survival and Stewardship

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson content.

1. What does God command humans to do in Genesis 1:28?

- A. Take care of the earth
- B. Subdue the earth
- C. Ignore nature

2. How does Brian demonstrate respect for his environment in 'Hatchet'?

---

---

---

---

3. The lesson emphasizes that humans have no responsibility towards nature.

- True       False

4. Psalm 104:24 tells us that the earth is full of God's ____.

5. What can we learn about survival from Brian's experiences?

- A. It is easy if you are prepared
- B. Nature is always friendly
- C. Resilience and adaptation are key
- D. You should avoid nature at all costs

6. What is one way we can show respect for God's creation?

---

---

---

---

7. God provides resources for us in challenging situations, as seen in the lesson.

- True       False

8. The lesson connects Brian's experiences to biblical narratives about ____ in the wilderness.

9. What is a key theme of the lesson?

- A. Ignoring nature
- B. Human stewardship of creation
- C. Living without challenges
- D. Avoiding responsibility

10. Why is it important to think critically about environmental stewardship?

---

---

---

-----

Answer Key

1. subdue the earth 2. Brian learns to use the resources around him wisely and avoids waste. He understands that nature is not just a challenge but a gift to be managed carefully. 3. False 4. creatures 5. Resilience and adaptation are key 6. We can reduce waste and recycle materials. By conserving resources, we honor God's creation and ensure it remains healthy for future generations. 7. True 8. survival 9. Human stewardship of creation 10. Thinking critically about environmental stewardship helps us make better choices that protect God's creation. It encourages us to act responsibly and care for the world around us.