

Book Club Foundations Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Collaborative Reading

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about book club foundations.

1. What did you learn about collaborative reading today?

2. What is one key skill for effective discussions?

- A. Active listening
- B. Reading alone
- C. Ignoring others

3. Respectful disagreement is an important part of group discussions.

True False

4. Proverbs 27:17 teaches us that 'As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens ____.'

5. Why is it important to ask clarifying questions during discussions?

6. What should we do to build on others' ideas?

- A. Change the subject
- B. Listen and add our thoughts
- C. Ignore what others say

7. Different perspectives can make understanding a story more difficult.

True False

8. Our book club should create a ____ that outlines how we will communicate and interact with each other.

9. How can our discussions help us understand stories better?

10. What is a good characteristic of a discussion question?

- A. Yes or no answer
- B. Encourages conversation
- C. Only one correct answer

Answer Key

1. I learned that collaborative reading helps us share ideas and understand stories better when we discuss them together. 2. Active listening 3. True 4. another 5. Asking clarifying questions helps everyone understand the topic better and ensures that we are all on the same page. 6. Listen and add our thoughts 7. False 8. covenant 9. Discussions allow us to hear different viewpoints, which can give us new insights and help us think more deeply about the story. 10. Encourages conversation