

Active Reading Strategies Review

BibleMouse.com

5th Grade Literature

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions below based on what you learned about active reading strategies.

1. What are some effective annotation techniques you learned today?

2. What is the purpose of asking questions while reading?

- A. To distract yourself
- B. To stay engaged and understand better
- C. To finish the book faster

3. Active reading includes making marks and notes in the ____ of the text.

4. Asking questions while reading helps us understand a story.

- True False

5. How can asking questions while reading help you understand a story better? Give an example.

6. Which of the following is NOT a benefit of active reading?

- A. Improves comprehension
- B. Makes reading boring
- C. Helps with retention

7. Proverbs 2:2-3 encourages us to turn our ear to ____ and apply our heart to understanding.

8. Annotation is only about underlining text.

- True False

9. What makes a good reading question? Provide one example of a question you might ask.

10. In what way is asking questions while reading similar to studying the Bible?

- A. Both require no thinking
- B. Both involve seeking understanding and wisdom
- C. Both are done quietly

Answer Key

1. I learned to make notes in the margins and highlight important parts. 2. To stay engaged and understand better 3. margins 4. True 5. Asking questions helps me think about the characters' motives. For example, I might ask why a character made a specific choice. 6. Makes reading boring 7. wisdom 8. False 9. A good reading question is open-ended and encourages deeper thinking. For example, "What do you think the author wants us to learn from this character's journey?" 10. Both involve seeking understanding and wisdom