

First Book Club Meeting Review

BibleMouse.com

Exploring Initial Chapters

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our first book club meeting and the lessons we discussed.

1. What is one objective of our book club meetings?

- A. To read silently
- B. To develop skills in collaborative literary discussion
- C. To summarize chapters

2. Why is it important to listen respectfully during discussions?

3. The memory verse we are focusing on is Proverbs 27:17.

- True False

4. In our discussions, we should focus on ____ questions to encourage deeper thinking.

5. What surprised you in the first chapters of your chosen book? Explain your thoughts.

6. Which of the following is a talking point we discussed for our book club?

- A. Building on others' ideas
- B. Reading quietly
- C. Writing summaries

7. Sharing personal experiences is not encouraged in book club discussions.

- True False

8. How can we improve our discussions next time? Provide at least two suggestions.

9. As we discuss books, we are like iron sharpening iron, helping each other grow in ____ and understanding.

10. What is one prediction you can make about the story based on the opening chapters?

- A. The main character will win a prize
- B. There will be a big conflict
- C. The story will be boring

Answer Key

1. To develop skills in collaborative literary discussion 2. Listening respectfully allows everyone to share their ideas and helps build a supportive environment for discussion. 3. True 4. thoughtful 5. I was surprised by the main character's backstory because it changed how I felt about them. It made the story more interesting. 6. Building on others' ideas 7. False 8. We can improve by asking more questions and making sure everyone gets a chance to speak. This will help us understand different perspectives. 9. wisdom 10. There will be a big conflict