

Growing as Learners Review

BibleMouse.com

Reflecting on Book Club Discussions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about group learning and communication.

1. What did you learn about yourself today during the book club discussion?

2. What is one principle of constructive feedback?

- A. To criticize harshly
- B. To give honest and kind comments
- C. To ignore others' ideas

3. Listening is more important than speaking in a discussion.

True False

4. Proverbs 15:31 teaches us that the ear that listens to ____ gains intelligence.

5. How can we improve our listening skills according to the lesson?

6. What does respectful communication look like?

- A. Interrupting others to get your point across
- B. Ignoring feedback from peers
- C. Using kind words and listening attentively

7. Feedback from peers can help us grow as learners.

True False

8. Kind words help to ____ others in a group setting.

9. Why is respectful communication important in a book club?

10. What made some discussion moments work well?

- A. Everyone talked at once
- B. People listened and responded thoughtfully
- C. No one paid attention

Answer Key

1. I learned that I need to listen more and not just wait for my turn to speak. 2. To give honest and kind comments 3. True 4. reproof 5. We can focus on what others are saying, ask questions, and avoid interrupting them. 6. Using kind words and listening attentively 7. True 8. build up 9. Respectful communication helps everyone feel valued and encourages open sharing of ideas. 10. People listened and responded thoughtfully