

Author's Craft Study Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Writing Techniques in Storytelling

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about an author's craft.

1. Which literary technique helps create mental images for the reader?

- A. Dialogue
- B. Description
- C. Pacing

2. How does dialogue help reveal a character's personality?

3. Pacing in a story does not affect the reader's emotional response.

- True False

4. The structure of a narrative guides the reader's ____ of the story.

5. What did you find surprising about the author's writing techniques?

- A. Use of description
- B. Character development
- C. Pacing

6. Discuss how writing techniques can make you want to keep reading a story.

7. Every Scripture is inspired by God and useful for teaching according to 2 Timothy 3:16.

- True False

8. Applying your heart to teachings is similar to how we study the words of the ____ according to Proverbs 22:17.

9. Which of the following is NOT a literary technique discussed in the lesson?

- A. Dialogue
- B. Adjectives
- C. Narrative Structure

10. Why is it important to analyze an author's craft when reading?

Answer Key

1. Description 2. Dialogue shows how characters speak and interact. It can reveal their emotions, backgrounds, and relationships with others. 3. False 4. understanding 5. Use of description 6. Writing techniques like suspense or vivid descriptions can keep readers engaged. When authors use strong characters and intriguing plots, it makes us eager to find out what happens next. 7. True 8. wise 9. Adjectives 10. Analyzing an author's craft helps us understand the deeper meaning of the story. It allows us to appreciate how different techniques impact our experience as readers.