

Science Fiction Exploration

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Imagination and Storytelling

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on your lesson about science fiction and its connection to God's creativity.

1. What is a key characteristic of science fiction?

- A. It only includes real places
- B. It explores 'what if' scenarios
- C. It is always set in the past

2. How can storytelling reflect God's creativity?

---

---

---

3. Science fiction often explores potential ____ about the future.

4. Science fiction stories typically avoid using technology in their plots.

- True       False

5. Which verse encourages us to think about things that are true and honorable?

- A. Genesis 1:27
- B. Philippians 4:8
- C. Exodus 20:12

6. What might our world look like in 100 years? Provide your thoughts.

---

---

---

---

7. Just as God is creative, humans reflect His image through ____ storytelling.

8. Stories in the science fiction genre can help us understand complex ideas.

- True       False

9. Why is imagination considered a gift from God in storytelling?

- A. It allows us to make up stories
- B. It helps us escape reality
- C. It reflects God's own creativity

10. How might technology change society according to science fiction?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. It explores 'what if' scenarios 2. Storytelling allows us to express ideas and imagine possibilities, just like God created the world with His imagination. It helps us share complex thoughts in a creative way. 3. futures 4. False 5. Philippians 4:8 6. In 100 years, I think technology will be very advanced, with flying cars and robots helping in daily life. People might live in smart cities that are very clean and efficient. 7. imaginative 8. True 9. It reflects God's own creativity 10. Technology could change society by improving communication and making life easier, but it could also create challenges like privacy issues. Stories help us think about these possibilities.