

Speculative Fiction Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Science Fiction Storytelling

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about writing speculative fiction.

1. What is a key element of science fiction storytelling?

- A. Real-life events
- B. Historical figures
- C. Compelling 'what if' questions

2. Humans reflect God's creative nature through ____ and storytelling.

3. How can your story show God's creativity? Give an example.

4. A good science fiction story should avoid exploring ethical challenges.

- True False

5. Which verse encourages us to think about positive and virtuous things?

- A. Genesis 1:27
- B. Philippians 4:8
- C. Exodus 20:12

6. Your story should include themes of ____ and redemption.

7. What big question does your story explore? Why is it important?

8. Creating characters who reflect biblical values can enhance a science fiction story.

- True False

9. Which of the following is NOT a talking point for writing speculative fiction?

- A. Create characters who reflect biblical values
- B. Develop a plot that explores ethical challenges
- C. Write stories only about historical events

10. A unique story should have a ____ that makes it special.

Answer Key

1. 2 2. imagination 3. My story can show God's creativity by having characters invent new technology that helps people. This reflects how God made the world interesting and full of possibilities. 4. False 5. Philippians 4:8 6. hope 7. My story explores the question of what would happen if humans could communicate with animals. This is important because it makes us think about how we treat living creatures and our responsibility towards them. 8. True 9. 3 10. theme