

Fact vs. Opinion Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Discernment in Information

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about facts and opinions.

1. What is the difference between a fact and an opinion? Provide examples of each.

2. Why is it important to be careful about what we believe?

- A. It helps us make better decisions
- B. It makes us more popular
- C. It allows us to argue better

3. Opinions are universally true for everyone.

True False

4. A prudent person carefully considers their ____ before believing information.

5. How can personal experiences affect our perception of information?

6. What does the scripture Proverbs 14:15 teach us about believing everything?

- A. It encourages us to trust everyone
- B. It warns against being simple-minded
- C. It tells us to ignore facts

7. Bias can influence how information is presented in texts.

True False

8. Christians are called to seek ____ and wisdom when evaluating information.

9. Explain how God's wisdom can help us discern truth from falsehood.

10. Which of the following is an example of a fact?

- A. Chocolate is the best ice cream flavor
- B. The Earth revolves around the Sun
- C. Cats are better than dogs

Answer Key

1. A fact is something that can be proven true, while an opinion is a personal belief. (Example: Fact - 'The sky is blue.'; Opinion - 'I think blue is the best color.') 2. It helps us make better decisions 3. False 4. ways 5. Personal experiences can shape our beliefs and opinions, making us see information in a way that supports our own views. 6. It warns against being simple-minded 7. True 8. truth 9. God's wisdom guides us to seek evidence and think critically, helping us to distinguish between what is true and what is merely an opinion. 10. The Earth revolves around the Sun