

Review of Fact and Interpretation

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Biography and Autobiography

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned in the lesson.

1. What is one reason biographers select specific facts?

- A. To tell the whole truth
- B. To support their interpretation
- C. To confuse the reader

2. What did you learn about looking at stories from different angles?

3. A trustworthy biography provides a balanced view of a person's life and considers different _____.

4. Biographers only include facts that support their opinion.

- True False

5. Which scripture emphasizes the need to examine different perspectives?

- A. Proverbs 18:17
- B. John 3:16
- C. Matthew 5:14

6. Why is it important to be a careful reader when dealing with biographies?

7. Understanding a person's story requires careful _____ and examination of facts.

8. Different perspectives can help us understand a person's story more fully.

- True False

9. How can we be fair when telling someone's story?

- A. By only using positive facts
- B. By considering multiple viewpoints
- C. By making it entertaining

10. How can we apply the lesson of different perspectives to understanding people's stories?

Answer Key

1. To support their interpretation 2. I learned that looking at stories from different angles helps us see the complete picture and understand the truth better. 3. perspectives 4. False 5. Proverbs 18:17 6. Being a careful reader helps us identify bias and understand how the author's background influences their portrayal of events. 7. investigation 8. True 9. By considering multiple viewpoints 10. We can listen to what different people say about someone and compare those views to get a more complete understanding of who they are.