

Exploring Sacrifice in Literature

BibleMouse.com

Comparing Themes Across Texts

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about sacrifice in literature and its connection to the Bible.

1. What did you learn about sacrifice from both The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe and Bridge to Terabithia? Explain in a few sentences.

2. What type of sacrifice does Aslan make in The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe?

- A. He sacrifices his throne
- B. He sacrifices his life
- C. He sacrifices his friendship

3. Jess and Leslie's friendship demonstrates the theme of sacrifice in Bridge to Terabithia.

- True False

4. In the Bible, Jesus exemplifies sacrificial love by laying down his ____ for his friends.

5. What motivates Aslan to sacrifice himself?

- A. To save Narnia
- B. To gain power
- C. To defeat the Witch

6. How can we show sacrificial love to others in our daily lives? Provide at least two examples.

7. Sacrifice is only about physical actions, not about emotions or intentions.

- True False

8. Why do you think the theme of sacrifice is important in both literature and the Bible? Write a few sentences explaining your thoughts.

9. In both stories, sacrifice demonstrates that true love often involves putting others' needs ____ our own.

10. What lesson do these stories teach us about God's love?

- A. God loves us only when we are good
- B. God's love is shown through sacrifice
- C. God does not care about our sacrifices

Answer Key

1. I learned that sacrifice can show deep love and friendship. In both stories, characters made sacrifices for others, which made their actions meaningful. 2. 1 3. True 4. life 5. To save Narnia 6. We can help a friend in need or share our belongings with someone who doesn't have enough. These actions show we care about others. 7. False 8. The theme of sacrifice shows us the depth of love and commitment. It helps us understand how important it is to care for others, just like Jesus cared for us. 9. before 10. God's love is shown through sacrifice