

Worldview Evaluation in Literature Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Literary Perspectives

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about analyzing worldviews in literature.

1. What is one purpose of analyzing literature according to the lesson?

- A. To only enjoy stories
- B. To understand different perspectives
- C. To memorize the stories

2. Philippians 4:8 encourages us to think about whatever things are ____, honorable, and just.

3. How can we identify an author's beliefs in their writing?

4. All perspectives presented in literature align with Christian values.

- True False

5. What should we consider when deciding if a story's message is helpful or harmful?

- A. The author's name
- B. The story's characters
- C. The message's alignment with truth and virtue

6. Critical reading involves understanding a text rather than just ____ it.

7. What is one way we can appreciate good writing while still being discerning?

8. Philippians 4:8 provides guidance on what to think about in literature.

- True False

9. Which of the following is NOT a talking point from the lesson?

- A. Authors communicate beliefs
- B. All stories are true
- C. Critical reading means understanding

10. Being a 'Worldview Detective' helps us analyze the ____ messages in literature.

Answer Key

1. true 2. true 3. We can look at the characters and their actions, as well as the themes presented in the story. 4. False 5. The message's alignment with truth and virtue 6. agreeing 7. We can enjoy the writing style and creativity while critically assessing the message it conveys. 8. True 9. All stories are true 10. underlying