

Book Review Basics

BibleMouse.com

Understanding How to Write a Thoughtful Book Review

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about writing book reviews.

1. What is one of the main parts of a book review?

- A. Summary
- B. Cover design
- C. Author's biography

2. What are the four main parts of a book review?

3. A good book review should only focus on the positives of a book.

- True False

4. In a book review, the ____ discusses the characters and themes.

5. Why is it important to be kind but honest in a review?

- A. To avoid hurt feelings
- B. To help improve the book
- C. Both A and B

6. How can a good book review help other readers?

7. The recommendation part of a book review suggests who might enjoy the book.

- True False

8. Proverbs 12:18 teaches us that wise communication brings ____.

9. What does the evaluation part of a book review focus on?

- A. The plot
- B. Strengths and weaknesses
- C. The author's background

10. What makes a book review helpful for readers?

Answer Key

1. Summary 2. The four main parts are summary, analysis, evaluation, and recommendation. 3. False 4. analysis 5. Both A and B 6. A good book review can help other readers decide if they would enjoy the book based on its strengths and weaknesses. 7. True 8. healing 9. Strengths and weaknesses 10. A helpful book review provides a clear understanding of the book's content and offers insights that can guide the reader's choice.
