

Poetry Revision Workshop Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Peer Review Techniques

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned in the Poetry Revision Workshop.

1. What is one important technique to use when giving feedback?

- A. Use harsh words
- B. Focus on the person
- C. Use 'I' statements

2. How can we make our feedback loving and helpful?

---

---

---

3. Proverbs 15:1 teaches us that a ___ answer turns away wrath.

4. It is important to balance positive observations with gentle suggestions when giving feedback.

- True       False

5. What did you learn about your poem during the peer review process?

---

---

---

6. What should we focus on when giving feedback?

- A. The writer's personality
- B. The work itself
- C. Our own opinions

7. Asking questions that help the writer improve is an important part of ___ review.

8. Harsh words can make the writer feel encouraged and motivated.

- True       False

9. Why is it beneficial to receive feedback on our writing?

---

---

---

10. Which of the following is a key point in giving constructive feedback?

- A. Focusing only on what is wrong
- B. Using 'I' statements
- C. Avoiding all suggestions

---

Answer Key

1. Use 'I' statements 2. We can use kind words and focus on what is good about the poem before giving suggestions. 3. soft 4. True 5. I learned that my poem had some strong imagery but needed more descriptive language. My partner's feedback helped me see that. 6. The work itself 7. peer 8. False 9. Feedback helps us see our work from another perspective and can show us areas for improvement that we might not notice ourselves. 10. Using 'I' statements