

Living Our Own Stories

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Our Life Narratives with God

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about how our lives are like stories.

1. What does Jeremiah 29:11 tell us about God's plans for us?

- A. They are plans for destruction
- B. They are plans for peace and hope
- C. They do not affect our lives

2. How can challenges in our lives be seen as plot developments?

3. Every life is a unique ___ that God is writing.

4. God is the master storyteller of our lives.

- True False

5. What role do we have in our life story according to the lesson?

- A. We are the main characters only
- B. We are co-authors with God
- C. We have no control over it

6. What is one 'plot twist' you have experienced in your life?

7. God's guidance helps us navigate the ___ in our life stories.

8. Our life experiences do not connect to literary concepts.

- True False

9. What chapter are you in now in your personal life story?

- A. A chapter of peace
- B. A chapter of conflict
- C. A chapter of growth

10. How can recognizing God's role in our lives help us grow?

Answer Key

1. They are plans for peace and hope 2. Challenges can help us grow and develop our character, just like in a story where the characters face obstacles that teach them important lessons. 3. story 4. True 5. We are co-authors with God 6. One plot twist I experienced was moving to a new city, which helped me make new friends and learn to adapt to changes. 7. challenges 8. False 9. A chapter of growth 10. Recognizing God's role helps us trust His plans, learn from our experiences, and see how He guides us through difficult times.