

Final Novel Study Introduction Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Our New Novel

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about introducing the final novel.

1. What is one objective of our final novel study?

- A. To memorize the entire book
- B. To develop pre-reading strategies
- C. To write a summary of the book

2. How can we approach literature with curiosity? Give two examples.

3. Proverbs 2:3 teaches us to cry out for ___ and lift up our voice for understanding.

4. Good readers do not make predictions before reading a book.

- True False

5. What does a prediction map help us do?

- A. Map out the author's life
- B. Understand the book's main character
- C. Outline our thoughts about the novel's plot and themes

6. What might the title of the novel tell us about the story? Provide your thoughts.

7. Every book has a story behind its ___.

8. We can learn from the experiences of characters in a novel.

- True False

9. What is one way we can connect our novel study to our Christian understanding?

- A. By ignoring the characters' experiences
- B. By relating the story to biblical principles
- C. By only focusing on the book cover

10. What surprised you about your initial predictions for the novel? Share your thoughts.

Answer Key

1. To develop pre-reading strategies 2. We can ask questions about the characters and themes. We can also make predictions about what will happen in the story. 3. discernment 4. False 5. Outline our thoughts about the novel's plot and themes 6. The title could hint at the main theme or the main character's journey. 7. story 8. True 9. By relating the story to biblical principles 10. I was surprised that my predictions were different from what I expected. I thought the story would be more adventurous, but it seems to have deeper themes.