

Independent Close Reading Review

BibleMouse.com

Assessing Your Comprehension

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on your understanding of the lesson about independent close reading and literary elements.

1. What is one objective of developing independent close reading skills?

- A. To memorize the text
- B. To analyze initial literary elements
- C. To finish reading quickly

2. What are some effective annotation techniques mentioned in the lesson? Give at least two examples.

3. The lesson suggests that reading is a passive activity where you just follow the words on the page.

- True False

4. Proverbs 2:3-5 encourages us to seek understanding like we would seek ____ and hidden treasures.

5. What does the lesson suggest good readers do while reading?

- A. They read silently without thinking
- B. They ask questions
- C. They only look at pictures

6. How can reading be compared to exploring a new world? Share your thoughts.

7. Annotations help us remember and understand the text better.

- True False

8. One of the discussion questions asks, "What makes you ____ about this book's opening?"

9. According to the lesson, what should students create after reading the opening chapters?

- A. A treasure map of insights
- B. A summary of the book
- C. A list of characters

10. What surprised you in the first chapters of the novel you are reading?

Answer Key

1. To analyze initial literary elements 2. One technique is marking interesting passages. Another is asking questions in the margins. 3. False 4. silver 5. They ask questions 6. Reading allows us to discover new ideas and places in our imagination, just like exploring a new world opens up new experiences. 7. True 8. curious 9. A treasure map of insights 10. I was surprised by how quickly the main character faced challenges and how relatable they were.