

Review: Subtracting Decimals with Confidence

BibleMouse.com

5th Grade Math

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about subtracting decimals.

1. What should you always do with decimal points when subtracting?
 - A. Align them vertically
 - B. Add them together
 - C. Ignore them
2. Precise alignment in subtraction reflects God's ____ nature.
3. You should add zeros as placeholders if needed when subtracting decimals.
 True False
4. Why is precise alignment important in decimal subtraction?

5. What is one strategy mentioned for decimal subtraction?
 - A. Skip the decimal
 - B. Regroup across decimal places
 - C. Use addition instead
6. In real-world scenarios, decimal skills can help us with ____ and budgeting.
7. Regrouping is not necessary when subtracting decimals.
 True False
8. How might developing patience and precision in math help you in life?

9. What scripture relates to being skilled in your work?
 - A. Proverbs 22:29
 - B. John 3:16
 - C. Psalm 23:1
10. The most challenging part of today's lesson was ____

Answer Key

1. Align them vertically 2. orderly 3. True 4. It ensures that we subtract the correct values from each decimal place. Precision is key to getting the right answer. 5. Regroup across decimal places 6. calculations 7. False 8. It teaches me to take my time and focus on details, which can help in many areas like school and work. 9. Proverbs 22:29 10. your own response