

Perseverance in Problem Solving

BibleMouse.com

---

5th Grade Math Review

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about perseverance in problem solving.

1. What does James 1:4 teach us about endurance?

- A. It makes us weak
- B. It helps us grow and be complete
- C. It is not important

2. Persistence in math helps us learn from our ____ attempts.

3. How can breaking down a problem into smaller steps help you solve it?

---

---

---

4. Learning from unsuccessful attempts is not important in problem-solving.

- True       False

5. Which of the following is a strategy for solving difficult problems?

- A. Giving up quickly
- B. Using different approaches
- C. Ignoring the problem

6. What are two ways you can apply problem-solving strategies in your daily life?

---

---

---

7. Spiritual perseverance can help us in math by teaching us to keep ____ when problems are tough.

8. It's okay to feel frustrated when solving a tough math problem; it helps you grow.

- True       False

9. How does facing a tough math problem relate to facing a spiritual challenge?

- A. Both require giving up
- B. Both show the need for perseverance
- C. Only math problems are hard

10. What motivates you to keep trying when a problem seems difficult?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. It helps us grow and be complete 2. unsuccessful 3. Breaking down a problem makes it easier to understand and tackle one part at a time. 4. False 5. Using different approaches 6. I can apply these strategies when doing homework or when faced with challenges in sports. 7. trying 8. True 9. Both show the need for perseverance 10. I want to succeed and learn, and I remember that perseverance leads to growth.