

Patterns in Nature and Scripture Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding God's Design through Patterns

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about patterns in nature and scripture.

1. What surprised you about the patterns we discovered today?

2. Patterns in nature demonstrate God's ____ design.

3. What does Psalm 104:24 tell us about God's works?

- A. They are random
- B. They are made with wisdom
- C. They are incomplete

4. Mathematical patterns exist only in mathematics and not in nature.

- True False

5. How might patterns demonstrate God's intentional design?

6. Which of the following is an example of a mathematical pattern?

- A. The colors of a rainbow
- B. The sequence of numbers 2, 4, 6, 8
- C. The shape of a leaf

7. The earth is full of God's ____, showing His works.

8. Analyzing patterns can help us understand more about God's character.

- True False

9. What are some examples of repeating patterns you have seen in nature?

10. Why is it important to recognize patterns in our studies?

- A. It helps us memorize better
- B. It allows us to see connections
- C. It shows math is easy

Answer Key

1. I was surprised to see how many patterns exist in nature and how they connect to math. 2. intentional 3. They are made with wisdom 4. False 5. Patterns show that God has a plan and purpose for creation. They reveal order and beauty in the world. 6. The sequence of numbers 2, 4, 6, 8 7. creatures 8. True 9. I have seen patterns in the petals of flowers and in the stripes of a zebra. 10. It allows us to see connections