

Review of Asking Good Questions

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Survey Question Design

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you've learned about creating clear and unbiased survey questions.

1. What is one characteristic of a good survey question?

- A. It is leading
- B. It is clear and neutral
- C. It is complex

2. Why is it important to avoid biased language in survey questions?

---

---

---

3. Proverbs 18:13 teaches us that we should listen before we ___ questions.

4. Clear wording in survey questions helps to gather accurate data.

- True       False

5. What is one way the wording of a question could change someone's answer?

---

---

---

6. Which of these is an example of a biased question?

- A. How do you feel about the new school lunch program?
- B. Do you think the school lunch program should be improved for better nutrition?
- C. What do you think of the school lunch program?

7. To develop critical thinking skills, we should always consider the ___ of our survey questions.

8. Asking leading questions is a good way to collect unbiased data.

- True       False

9. Can you give an example of a question that might make someone feel uncomfortable?

---

---

---

10. What is one potential source of bias in data collection?

- A. Asking too many questions
- B. Surveying only certain groups
- C. Using clear language

---

Answer Key

1. It is clear and neutral 2. Biased language can influence the responses and lead to inaccurate data. 3. ask 4. True 5. If the question is phrased in a way that suggests a certain answer, it may lead the respondent to answer that way instead of honestly. 6. Do you think the school lunch program should be improved for better nutrition? 7. impact 8. False 9. An example could be asking someone about their personal income or health issues, which might invade their privacy. 10. Surveying only certain groups