

Looking Ahead to Sixth Grade - Math Review

BibleMouse.com

Reflecting on Our Math Journey and Future Learning

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about transitioning to sixth-grade math.

1. What surprised you most about your math journey this year?

2. Which new concept will you learn in sixth grade?

- A. Basic multiplication
- B. Negative number concepts
- C. Simple addition

3. Fifth-grade math does not prepare you for sixth-grade math.

True False

4. Proverbs 16:3 teaches us to commit our work to ____ for our plans to be established.

5. What are you looking forward to learning in sixth grade? Explain why.

6. What is one topic that involves understanding shapes and their properties?

- A. Geometry
- B. Statistics
- C. Division

7. Ratios and proportional relationships are part of sixth-grade math.

True False

8. In sixth grade, students will develop their skills in ____ reasoning.

9. What might be a challenge when learning about negative numbers?

- A. They are easy to understand
- B. They can be confusing
- C. They are not used in math

10. How do the skills you learned in fifth grade prepare you for sixth grade math?

Answer Key

1. I was surprised by how much I learned about fractions and decimals. 2. Negative number concepts 3. False 4. Yahweh 5. I look forward to learning algebra because I like solving puzzles. 6. Geometry 7. True 8. spatial 9. They can be confusing 10. The skills help build a strong foundation for understanding more complex concepts.