

Playing Together Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Ensemble Skills

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about playing together in a musical ensemble.

1. What did you learn about the importance of listening in a musical ensemble?

---

---

---

2. What is one thing musicians need to watch during an ensemble performance?

- A. Their instruments
- B. The audience
- C. The conductor

3. In a musical group, each member contributes uniquely but _____.

4. Listening to other musicians is not important when playing together.

- True       False

5. How can listening improve the sound of a musical group?

---

---

---

6. What does the body of Christ represent in relation to music?

- A. Different instruments
- B. Different members working together
- C. Different types of music

7. Staying together rhythmically is essential for _____.

8. The foot can say it's not part of the body because it's not a hand according to 1 Corinthians 12:14-20.

- True       False

9. Which of the following is a key point when playing in an ensemble?

- A. Playing louder than everyone
- B. Ignoring the conductor
- C. Balancing volume between instruments

10. In what ways can musicians show teamwork during an ensemble performance?

---

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Listening helps musicians stay in harmony and understand each other's parts. 2. The conductor 3. collaboratively 4. False 5. Listening allows musicians to adjust their volume and timing to fit with others, creating a better overall sound. 6. Different members working together 7. harmony 8. True 9. Balancing volume between instruments 10. Musicians can communicate through their playing, support each other's parts, and follow the conductor's cues together.